NATIONAL COIN WEEK FINAL REPORT

On Wednesday, April 22, 1987, at 2PM, I visited my daughter's 2nd grade class at the G.W. Miller Elementary School in Nanuet, NY., to discuss hobbies and the difference between coins and money. I gave out "Buffalo" nickels, Indian cents, and Jefferson "War" nickels in 2x2 holders, "grab-bag" style. I also gave out coloring books that I made (see enclosed).

This is the third year I have gone to my daughter's classroom (grades K and 1st also). One student that was in Jenna's Kindergarten and first grade classes told me that she "still has coins from the other two years", and wants "to be a coin collector when I grow up".

In honor of NCW, Mrs. Field, my daughter's teacher will turn show-and-tell on Friday, April 24, into "Coins I Have Show-and-Tell"! This is what NCW is all about!

I would like to request a certificate of participation for my daughter. She acted as liason between her teacher and me, as well as monitor, distributing coloring books, passing the grab-bag of giveaways, and introducing me to her classmates. Her help was invaluable. Her full name is:

JENNA VICTORIA VAN VALEN

As usual, I had lots of fun preparing for and participating in NCW.

Sincerely,

Frank Van Valen R-107439

P.S. I was also NCW Chairman for the LERA Coin Club of Pearl River, NY ANA Club #61340. I am submitting their report under seperate cover.
